AT THE WALLED GARDEN

The Walled Garden at Cowdray is a historic and charming setting for weddings and celebrations. Surrounded by beautiful, private gardens and set against the stunning backdrop of Cowdray Ruins and Lawns polo pitches in the West Sussex Countryside, The Walled Garden is an ideal wedding venue to start your married journey.

The Events team at Cowdray, alongside our in-house caterers, The Yellow Kitchen, are here to bring your wedding dreams to life in this unique and wonderful setting. With the glorious gardens and two reception rooms inside this Grade II listed building, we can guarantee that you and your guests will have the most magical day, making memories to last a lifetime.

THE DRESSING ROOM

Located upstairs looking out over the garden, the dressing room is available to you from 8.30am on your wedding morning. With stunning natural light and plenty of space, it is the ideal place to prepare for your special day.

---

THE COURTYARD ROOM

---

The Courtyard Room is a favourite amongst couples for both ceremonies and dancing. With its stunning exposed brick walls, the space feels bright and airy for daytime ceremonies, transforming into the perfect dancefloor for your evening reception, providing ample space for live music and the opportunity to dance the night away.

THE CASTLE ROOM

The Castle Room, named after its stunning views over Cowdray Ruins, is a truly charming and characterful setting for your wedding breakfast. We can accommodate up to 100 guests on round tables, but the room also lends itself a more intimate occasion too.

THE GARDEN

---

With low sun and often crisp refreshing days, The Walled Garden is magical in Winter. Why not cosy up and enjoy a warming hot chocolate or mulled wine beside the fire pit. Anyone for s'mores?
